

Linda Mays McCaul

Linda Mays McCaul is the daughter of Peggy and Lowry Mays. She is married to Congressman Michael McCaul, who is serving his 5th term in the U.S. Congress representing the 10th District of Texas. They have five children (Caroline, 16; Jewell, 15; and triplets Lauren, Avery, and Michael, 11). Linda is on the Board of M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, where she chairs the Advisory Committee for the Children's Cancer Hospital. Linda also serves on the Board of the Austin Greater Crime Commission and the Trust for the National Mall. Linda and her older 2 daughters are members of the National Charily League. She is also a member of the Congressional Club.

Linda has a Masters degree in oceanography and geology. She attended the University of Miami and Texas A&M University. She was working for Naval Intelligence tracking Soviet submarines when she met Michael at the Air and Space Museum in Washington DC. She also worked for the Central Intelligence Agency and helped the Army get permitting to destroy the chemical weapons stockpiled in the US.

The McCaul family resides in Austin, Texas where their children attend school. They also have a home in Washington DC.